Subject: The Great Utah ShakeOut

Emergency preparedness at the individual and organizational level is an essential part of the success of the American Red Cross, Utah Region. As such, we are proud to announce our support and participation in the largest statewide drill in Utah history, the 2012 Great Utah ShakeOut.

On April 17, 2012 at 10:15 a.m., the American Red Cross Utah Region, along with thousands of Utahns, will practice how to protect ourselves during earthquakes by conducting a “Drop, Cover and Hold On” exercise. It is important to be prepared at work, school and home, because we never know when the “Big One” may strike. The Great Utah ShakeOut is a wonderful opportunity to step up and be a partner in preparedness. It’s also the perfect time to review your emergency plans and replenish your disaster/72-hour kits.

Join us today by registering at www.shakeout.org/utah to participate in the Great Utah ShakeOut. Together, we will be better prepared when disaster strikes.

Sincerely,

Maxine Margaritis
CEO
American Red Cross Utah Region

P.S. You can also participate in mock shelters as a part of the Utah ShakeOut. For more information go to www.utahredcross.org.

Be safe!
